

Partnership between UNOR and ÖOG

By reference to the friendship relations initiated within the CIOR framework and bilateral visits started since 2012

The Österreichische Offiziersgesellschaft, ÖOG - Austria and

The Union Nationale des Organisations de Réservistes, UNOR - France represented by their Presidents, hereby declare the partnership of their associations and agree on pursuing the subsequent objectives:

- Development of their relations for the sake of common interests of Austrian and French reservists – particularly concerning developments on conscription;
- Nomination of respectively one person in charge who will promote the exchanges and implement new joint projects;
- Arrangement of a common meeting between the leaders of the associations at least every second year, by taking advantage of the CIOR calendar
